List of Biruni's Works and Books

- Biruni had previously prepared a list of the works of Abu Zekerayi er Razi. Being influenced by a dream he had at the age of 65, he thinks that he has reached the last years of his life and makes a list of his own works. The list that I will share with you here is the list prepared by Biruni himself. The work for which he prepared this list became famous as "al-fihrist".
- Biruni wrote a treatise called "al-Fihrist". In this treatise, first gave a list of Abu Bakr Zekeriya er-Razi's books. Afterwards, he gave a long list of his own works until 420 (1029-1030) Hijri.
- He says: "Just as I started with the books of Abu Bakr Zekeriya er-Razi, I end with the "names of the books I wrote" until the end of Hijri 420 (1029-1030), which you once asked me when you showed me their names. I have completed sixty-five (65) years of my life according to the lunar calendar and sixty-three (63) years according to the solar year. I am not surprised that the interpretation of the dream has come true, although the desire on this matter did not come true.
- The names of 137 books are listed here. They are not included in this list, which he wrote in the 30-year period of his life until his death (d. 453/1061).

Biruni's Astronomical and Geographical works

- Biruni's first works are about discussions and corrections on the latitude-longitude, world map, on the "Map of Al-Ma'muni and Zichs" prepared by the Caliph Me'mun during the Abbasid period. It is related to the astronomical geography that developed through this basic work of the Abbasid era scholars. In these works, he carried out studies related to the Indian astronomy tradition by adhering to the Biruni Harizmi tradition. He made criticisms and studies on the astronomical works of the scholars from Transoxiana and Harizm, who lived in the Abbasid period such as Harezmi, Hubeyş el-Hasib, Fergani, on the astrolabes and their methods. Such works of Biruni consist of 44 books and articles. His work in this field is still in its infancy and awaits further studies.

Biruni's works are on arithmetics, mathematics

- Biruni's second-level works are on arithmetics, mathematics, number theory, Indian mathematics, translations of these works into Arabic and criticism of previous translations. The total of his works on these subjects is nine. In these books, Biruni did not only study anthropology about Indian society and beliefs; but also worked on the mathematics of this civilization.

Biruni's work on Lights

- One of the subjects of Biruni's work that has received little attention so far is on "Light": he wrote works on subjects such as the refraction of light, its reflections, the speed of light, and the life of the ray. With these studies, he tried to calculate the speed and lifetime of the lights coming from stars and planets. In this way, he tried to calculate the distance between the earth and the sun and other stars. He has written a total of four works in this field. Biruni's work on light paved the way for Ibn Heytham, who revolutionized light and the act of seeing with the eye.

Biruni's History, Folklore and Humor.

- He has written a dozen (12) works on Biruni's history, folklore and humor. These works tell the humorous stories of Indian folk tales, Iranian, Turan, Arab peoples that have become anonymous. Some are translations from ancient cultures.
- 1- Kıssatü Vfunık ve Azra. 1- Hadisu Kaslrni's-Sürı1r ve Ayni'l-Hayat 2- Hadisu Ormazdiyar ve Mihri yar. 3- Had!su Sanemeyi 'l-Bamiyan. 4- Hadisu Dazme ve Keramı Doht Hahli'l-Vadi. 5- Hadisu Nilüfer fi Kıssati Debisi ve Berbehülker. 6- Kafiyetü'l-Elif mine'l-İtmam fi Şi'ri Ebi Temam. 7- Makale fi'l-İstibhar fi Kaddi'l-Eşcar. 8- Tahsilu'r-Raha bi-Tashihi'l-Mesaha. 9- et-Tahzir min Kibeli't-Türk. 10- el-Kur'atü'l-Musarraha bi'l-Avakıb. 11- el-Kur'atü'l-Müsemmene li İstinbati'z-Damairi'l-Muham_x0002_mene ve Şerhi Mez1l.mlri'l-Kur'ati'l-Müsemmene. 12- Tercümetü Kelb-i Yare

Biruni Works on Religions and Beliefs

- Biruni also wrote works on religions and beliefs. He later combined many of his articles on Indian beliefs in his most famous work in this field, "Kitabu Ma Li'l-Hind". He also translated books on Indian beliefs and customs.
- 1-Tahkik ma li'l-Hind min Makaletin Makbuletin fi'l-Akl ve Merzule. 700 paper.
- 2- Makale fi Illeti Alamati'l-Buruc fi'z-Zicat min Hurufi'l-Cümmel.
- 3- Kelam Fi'l-Müstekarr ve'l-Müstevda'. 10 paper.
- 4- Makale fi Basedyu'l-Hind 'inde Mecieti'l-Edna.
- 5- Tercümetü Kitabu Şamilin fi'l-Mevcudati'l-Mahsuse ve'l-Ma'kule.
- 6- Tercümetü Kitabi Batancel fi'l-Halas mine'l-İrtibak
- It is a great deficiency that Birun's "understanding of religion" has not been sufficiently studied yet.*

Biruni's Lost Books

- After listing all his works, Biruni also mentions his works that were lost while he was still alive, either in draft form or while they were cleared. He complains that many of his works are lost on this subject.

Biruni's Most Recent Books

- Biruni wrote that one night in his dream tell him “ he will see only 170 months “. When he wakes up in the morning, he immediately calculates the remaining life according to the dream he sees. Accordingly, he calculates that he has 14 years and 2 months to live. This is 13 years and 8.5 solar years. Biruni reports that he wrote the following works in his remaining lifetime. Biruni's most recent works are:
- 1- el-Kanun el-Mesud!
- 2- el-Asaru'l-Bakiye mine'l-Kuruni'l-Haliye.
- 3- el-İrşad ila ma yurraku ve la yünalü mine'l-Eb'ad.
- 4- el-Kitabetü fi'l-Mekayil ve'l-Mevazin ve'ş-Şeraitu't-Tayyar ve'ş-Şevahin.
- 5- Cem'u't-Turuki's-Saire fi Ma'rifeti Evtari'd-Daire.
- 6- Tasavvuru Ernri'l-Fecr ve'ş-Şafak fi Ciheteyi'ş-Şark ve'l-Garb mine'l Ufuk.
- 7- Tekmilu Sinaati't-Tastih.
- 8- Celau'l-Ezhan fi Zici'l-Battani.
- 9- Tahdidu'l Ma'mura ve Tashihuha fi's-Surati.
- 10- 'lelelu Ca'fer el-Mukanna bi Ebu Ma'şer.

- After counting all his works and books, Biruni makes a general evaluation as follows: "...you should know what I wrote in my youth, among my books. After I wrote them, the information about them increased. However, I can neither reject them nor see them as bad/vulgar. Because they are all my children. Most people are (only) infatuated with their own son and his hair. As for what I attribute to others under my own name, they are like daughters at home and necklaces around their necks. I do not make a distinction (as others do) between my children (my own books) and them (what is written in my name). .." then gives a list of the works he wrote during the Afrik dynasty (Abu Nasr Mnsur b. Ali b. Iraq) and the Ma'munis period (Abu Sahl Isa b. Yahya al-Mesihi) in Harizm.

Conclusion

- Many of Biruni's works attributed to him today do not have names. Probably some of them were written later. Some of them later became famous with different names. But it is a very important opportunity that a significant part of his works were written by him. Comparative studies can be made on the works that have survived and those that have not survived. It is a pity that Biruni's works remain in the 30s, although there are over 2000 of Ibn Sina's manuscripts in libraries in Turkey. This sequel has also shown less interest in Biruni from the scientific world than in the past. Biruni's manuscripts on many subjects await the attention of experts in the field.
