

President of the Republic of Uzbekistan

Sh.M. Mirziyoyev

Open appeal of

" Cultural Legacy of Uzbekistan – the path to dialogue between nations and countries"

Second International Congress participants

Dear President!

On behalf of the participants of the Second International Congress "Cultural heritage of Uzbekistan - a path to dialogue between nations and countries", I would like to express my deep respect for your tireless work in building a new Uzbekistan. Today, during the Second International Congress held in St. Petersburg, we had the opportunity to get acquainted with the new results of your work on the fundamental reform of Uzbekistan, creation of suitable conditions for the development of fundamental science and culture. We are especially close to your efforts to preserve the rich cultural heritage of the Uzbek people, which has made an incomparable contribution to the development of world civilization. We are well aware of your acceptance of civilized Islam as a religion of goodness, peace and tolerance, and we support your tireless efforts to implement it.

The project "Cultural Heritage of Uzbekistan in World Collections" supported by you in the study and promotion of the invaluable spiritual wealth of the Uzbek people has become an important achievement, which envisages the collection, study and publication of manuscripts and documents, art objects related to the history of the people of Uzbekistan. Within the project, 15 albums were published, more than 20 documentaries were shot. The project combined the efforts of the scientific community of Uzbekistan, with the efforts of researchers from Russia, Great Britain, France, Germany, the Czech Republic, the USA, Japan, Turkey and many other countries, which has its own scientific school. and developing effectively.

In May 2017, the 1st International Congress "Cultural heritage of Uzbekistan - a path to dialogue between peoples and countries" was held in Tashkent and Samarkand, and more than 300 scientists from around the world participated in it. We are confident that this project will serve to strengthen mutual understanding between peoples and countries, and increase the cultural prestige of your country.

An important result of the Second International Congress held today in St. Petersburg was the establishment of the World Society for the Preservation, Study and Popularization of the Cultural Heritage of Uzbekistan. We are confident that this newly established international organization, which unites everyone who appreciates the history and culture of Uzbekistan, will be a reliable assistant in your tireless efforts to popularize the cultural heritage of the ancient land of Uzbekistan.

We wish you good health and prosperity to independent Uzbekistan!

Adopted by the participants of the World Society for the Study, Preservation, and Popularization of the Cultural Heritage of Uzbekistan,

Saint Petersburg, June 8, 2018.